

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to
air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election
is a clear example
corruption and
misuse.

Sinclair uses the
public airwaves free
of charge, and is
obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when
large companies
control the
airwaves, we get more of what's good
for the bottom line
and less of what we need for our democracy.

This is clearly a partisan act, and I
am officially complaining. I will not take this
sitting down.
